

Vineyard Church North Phoenix Worship Team Covenant

Life Verse for all those who are involved in worship here at VC

Romans 12:1 (The Message)

So here's what I want you to do, God helping you: Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for Him.

Your commitment to VC's worship and arts ministry means that you will commit to the following:

1. Prepare yourself.

Learn your music.

Hone your skills.

Pray.

Steward soberly your body, your relationships and your sexuality.

2. Be a team player.

Do your best to be present, prompt and prepared.

Get to know and support your band mates.

Work through differences with gentleness.

Play selectively.

3. Be a servant.

Steward with care your very public role, including your own expectations as well as the affirmations and critical input you receive. Serve the goal of an interactive worship experience, which serves people of a variety of ages, backgrounds, and ethnicities.

4. Focus and direct your passions toward God.

Don't get stuck in the music either technically, by forgetting to worship, or preference-wise, by letting musical taste affect your worship experience. Don't dumb down your talent or worship expression. Have a blast!

5. Tell us why you're here, and what we can do to help you get the most out of, and give the most to, this team.

Got questions? Got a new idea? Getting distracted or frustrated? Struggling in your personal life? Ask for help. We are your pastors, not just bandleaders. We're here to serve and equip you to grow and succeed as a passionate follower of Jesus.

It is also a given that as a leader at VC you:

- Are an active member at VC
- Are consistent in your weekend service attendance
- Faithfully give financially to VC
- Are involved in a VC small group
